Wonderful Weekend for Women

Empowering • Connecting • Inspiring

On March 12 & 13, you'll experience two days designed to challenge you to change your world by impacting your community, church, and family for Christ. Join over 1000 other women who will envision the endless possibilities of giving more, doing more, and living more on purpose for the cause of Christ.

Whatever is true, whatever is honorable, whatever is just, whatever is pure, whatever is lovely, whatever is commendable ... dwell on these things. Phil. 4:8

WWW is pure fun. We are passionate about creating a truly connecting experience. Life is filled with too many serious things that require our constant energies. We need frequent rest stops. Laughing and learning at the same time does something that primes our minds for ultimate absorption. If it makes your spirit smile and your heart light, we'll try it.

Speakers

Tim Hawkins. Tim has become one of the most in-demand comics in the country. His arsenal is unique: high energy stand-up, physical comedy, slick guitar skills, a thousand faces/voices, and improvisational chops all combine to create an insane comedy experience. Tim has four kids and a wife who is winning her battle with breast cancer, so he gets new material daily from the perils of marriage and parenting.

Candace Cameron Bure. Many of you will likely remember Candace as a teenaged girl from television's Full House, but what she is today is a wife and mother. Her philanthropic spirit has given support to Skip1.org, the Children's Hunger Fund, Compassion International and Sheridan House Family Ministries. Candace serves as the National Ambassador for National House of Hope.

Carolyn Castleberry. Author, news anchor, and speaker, Carolyn brings a fresh perspective to life's everyday challenges. She is an internationally recognized author on money and time management; her work has been featured on FOX & Friends, USA Today and MSN MONEY. Her reports focus on bringing faith and life together. She has written many books including, It's About Time: 10 Smart Strategies to Avoid Time

Traps and Invest Yourself Where it Matters and Women, Take Charge of Your Money: A Biblical Path to Financial Security.

Serving

147 Million Orphans.

Each year WWW participates in a mission project. This year we are partnering with 147 Million Orphans to bring awareness to the worldwide orphan crisis. God has led two young Williamson County families to adopt eight children. Now these two moms are passionately trying to help all of us discover our part in helping change the life of an orphan. It's simple. Buy a necklace or other product and feed an orphan; be good and look good.

"Whatever" for Women's Ministry Leaders

During our lunch break on Saturday, WWW will host a special "breakout session" for all ladies involved with women's ministry. This will be a great chance to discuss the "Whoever, Whatever and However of Women's Ministry," facilitated by Marie Armenia, the Women's Ministry Leader at First Baptist Church, Columbia.
